The Biblical Roots

The phrase "God was in this place I did not know" is an adaptation of a biblical verse from Genesis 28:16. The full verse, as rendered in the New International Version, states:

“When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, ‘Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware of it.’”

This moment occurs during Jacob’s dream of the ladder reaching to heaven, where divine activity is made manifest unexpectedly. The verse underscores that God’s presence can be hidden or unnoticed until a moment of divine revelation or awakening.

Historical Significance

Over the past 25 years, this phrase has transcended its biblical origins to become a poignant expression within Christian communities, especially among those emphasizing personal encounters with the divine. It has been used in sermons, worship songs, retreats, and spiritual writings to remind believers that God’s presence often exists in places and moments we may overlook or fail to recognize.
